Billecart-Salmon Champagne Extra Brut Meunier Rendez-Vous No.3 NV
Champagne, France

Founded in 1818, Billecart-Salmon has built a reputation for its focus on precision and finesse. Based in Mareuil-sur-Ay, the estate has been passed down through seven generations, maintaining a steadfast commitment to traditional methods while embracing innovation. The Rendez-Vous series is Billecart-Salmon's homage to the art of blending and vineyard expression, with each release showcasing a specific aspect of the house's terroirs and winemaking expertise.

Rendez-Vous No.3 is 100% Pinot Meunier, an uncommon single-varietal Champagne. The grapes are sourced from old vineyards in the Vallée de la Marne, where the chalky, clay-limestone soils and temperate climate contribute to the complexity of the wines.

Heiwa Shuzou "KID" Junmai Ginjo Natsu no Shippu Sake
Wakayama Prefecture, Japan

Heiwa Shuzou, founded in 1928 in Wakayama Prefecture, is known for merging tradition with modern techniques. The "KID" series, aimed at a new generation, reflects this balance. The "Natsu no Shippu" (Summer Breeze) is a seasonal sake crafted for warm weather. Made from locally grown rice, this Junmai Ginjo sake highlights the region's pristine water sources and the brewery's focus on freshness and refinement.

This Junmai Ginjo sake is made from locally grown rice polished to 50%.

Jean-Marc Brocard Chablis Montée de Tonnerre 2020
Burgundy, France

Jean-Marc Brocard, who transitioned to organic and biodynamic farming, has long been a leader in Chablis. The Montée de Tonnerre Premier Cru vineyard lies on the Kimmeridgian limestone soils that define the region. Brocard's approach lets the terroir shine, capturing the essence of one of Chablis' top Premier Cru sites.

This wine is composed entirely of 100% Chardonnay grapes from the Montée de Tonnerre vineyard.

Domaine Armelle et Bernard Rion Chambolle-Musigny Les Gruenchers 2015
Burgundy, France

Since 1896, Domaine Rion has specialized in crafting Pinot Noir wines of elegance. Situated in Chambolle-Musigny, the Les Gruenchers vineyard lies just below the Grand Crus, with limestone soils contributing to the wine's silky texture. Rion family's dedication to meticulous vineyard care and traditional winemaking ensures this wine reflects its unique terroir and vintage.

This wine is crafted from 100% Pinot Noir grapes from the Les Gruenchers vineyard.

Stéphane Ogier Côte-Rôtie Reserve 2015
Rhône Valley, France

Stéphane Ogier, from a long line of winemakers in the northern Rhône, has built a reputation for producing some of the region's most expressive Syrahs. The Côte-Rôtie appellation, with its steep vineyards and schist soils, gives the wine its structure and complexity. The 2015 Reserve blends grapes from top sites with a touch of Viognier. Rich and concentrated, Ogier's meticulous winemaking delivers a wine with great aging potential.

This Reserve is primarily composed of Syrah with approximately 3-5% Viognier blended in for added complexity.

Domaine des Baumard Grand Cru Quarts de Chaume 2012
Loire Valley, France

Family-owned since 1634, Domaine des Baumard has long been a standard-bearer for the Loire Valley's sweet wines. The Quarts de Chaume vineyard, famed for its botrytized Chenin Blanc, produces wines with exceptional richness and balance. Baumard's dedication to preserving traditional methods, while embracing innovation, shines in this complex and harmonious wine.

This Quarts de Chaume is crafted entirely from 100% Chenin Blanc grapes, showcasing the essence of the Loire Valley.
